EXPERIENCE

Aug 2011
- Present

Front-End Web Developer | DTime, Inc.

My successful internship led me to the position I am in now. As a front-end web developer, I design and code web interfaces using HTML, CSS, Haml, Sass, and Javascript.

Web Designer | Freelance

As a freelance designer, I have had the pleasure of interacting with clients to create successful projects in blog creation, web design, web development, theme design, graphic design, print design and logo design.

May 2011
- Aug 2011

Design Intern | DTime, Inc.

During this summer internship in New York City, I joined an up and coming technology startup. In my time here, I designed various logos, mobile and web interfaces, coded my designs with Haml & Sass, and contributed to the overall UX/UI.

Oct 2008
- July 2009

Web Designer | 9Miles Media

9Miles Media is a design company ran by young adults, in which I was proud to be a part of. I learned valuable teamwork and communication skills that will stay with me for years to come.
